

Workgroup 6: Interventions at the Population and Community Level (Scott McConnell & Anne Larson, Co-Leads)

Person	Affiliation/Discipline	Summary of Contribution to the Network
Anthony Biglan	Oregon Research Institute	Population- and community-level interventions; prevention science; evaluation
Constance Beecher	Iowa State University-- College of Education	Increasing communication and early literacy for at risk children and families using technology.
Cristina Smith	Port Salerno Talks	Port Salerno Talks Initiative
Courtney Hawkins	Providence Talks	Providence Talks Initiative
Dana Hughes	UC-San Fran--Family & Community Medicine	Health policy research and evaluation with a focus on low income children and families
Dayna Long	UC-San Fran – Center for Community Health	Spokesperson for Too Small to Fail’s campaign in Oakland, CA
Dean Olson	Family Conservancy of Kansas City	Framing city-wide public information campaigns (Talk Read Play);
Dianne Haulcy	Director of Family Engagement at Think Small	Organizing and leading community-based early childhood initiatives, cross-agency coordination
Kara Dukakis	The Opportunity Institute	Senior VP of the Strong Families and Early Learning; Director of Too Small to Fail
Mark Holland	Mayor, Kansas City, KS	Bridging the Word Gap as county-wide health initiative
Sly James	Mayor, Kansas City, MO	Talk, Read, Play: City-wide KC Initiative
Steven Dow	Exec. Director, CAP – Tulsa, OK	Community-wide campaigns to empower parents to encourage language development
Traci Martin	LENA Research Foundation	LENA Start, Smarter Happier Baby, training and implementation across pilot sites
Will Aldridge	Univ. of North Carolina	Implementation Science; community-level interventions for parents